THE ELECTRIC LIGHT AND ALADDIN'S LAMP

Like the genii of Aladdin's Lamp of Arabian Nights, the genius of the electric light of our modern nights, is a magical power that springs to your command at a twist of the wrist.

For you, electricity is a silent, invisible, marvelously capable force which serves you night and day ,winter and summer, year in and year out, in an increasing variety of ways that make life better and living easier.

For us, your service, convenience and comfort means that maintenance of a great network of transmission lines, power generating plants, dams and reservoirs, requiring the constant thought, vigilance and labor of a large organization of men to keep wires always energized and electrical power responsive to your will.
